

Since we have been on Wisconsin's No-Call list, we have seen a dramatic decrease in the number of calls we receive from telemarketers. It is wonderful not to have our phone ringing off the hook at all hours with unwanted solicitations! We are counting on the FCC to continue to protect our right to privacy by keeping the No Call list intact.